Pow wow committee

We might have a food truck for wells it is all self contained

Chairman is going to ask about generator since we don't want it running all night

May 3rd is the may pow wow

Drums are Heavy Rain, possibly Sacred Spirit or Sacred Earth Depending on who answers first.

Since Jay is going to the UK at the end of April beginning of May no one of his drum mates want to have the responsibility of housing the drum.

Richhard is the MC for both powwows

Joe Dunches of Sacred Earth Coming for Wells.

Member made beautiful Flyers for May and Wells

Alstead flyers were handed out to those who wanted them.

February will be the next pow wow etiquette

Rochester was brought up, working on getting more details, we can use a fenced in area.

There are bathrooms but also getting poterpotties as well. There is running water for us. We will have electricity. Their sponsors will feed the dumbs and feast.Mike will get more information. Looking at the 2nd / 3rd weekend in august.

Motion was made to approve committee reports and was seconded. Approved by all members present unanimously

Old business

We need applications for may, alstead and wells. It was brought up that we also needed to make our Council booth look good with flyers applications and regalia

We are going to have the native and non native applications and Chief started the membership cards up at 500 and will go from there.

Talk about our flyers with the etiquette and a blurb of what council is and our meetings as well.

We are collecting Dues in the april meeting, if your dues are not paid you can not vote in May

It was talked about who do we let in and who has voting rights. It was talked about that you have to hit 6 meetings to be able to vote and if a Native human from Maine showed up to three quarters or all of the meeting then they should be able to vote.

The secretary position that is now open was brought up, two members are taking minutes

Interim secretary was chosen
